What is the Cullinan Kickstart Small Business Program?

Cullinan Kickstart was created in an effort to help entrepreneurs start or expand their small business in the Peoria area. Kickstart equips entrepreneurs with necessary financial, construction or general support resources that may be needed to be successful in the first year of operation.

What are the benefits to my business?

- Reduces entrepreneur risk and expenses
- Marketing support provided
- Business guidance available
- Provides much needed assistance that is critical to businesses in their first year

What businesses qualify for Cullinan Kickstart?

Local businesses launching a first location or expanding qualify for Cullinan Kickstart. The program is available for retail, restaurant and entertainment uses and is not open to national tenants.

What do I have to do to be considered?

Our retail leasing experts are available to help walk you through the application process. To be considered, applicants must:

- Submit description of business/business plan
- Provide resume
- Ultimately provide personal financial statements

How does the application process work?

- 1) Contact retail leasing specialist (contact information below)
- 2) Retail leasing specialist walks entrepreneur through application package
- 3) Entrepreneur submits packages for Cullinan Kickstart review
- 4) Cullinan Kickstart reaches out to qualifying entrepreneurs and structures lease using incentive that fits tenants' needs
